

Used for hundreds of years due to its natural strength and durability, our dry stone is a versatile building material which can be used to build decorative and perimeter walling for garden and landscaping projects.

All of our dry stone is riddled to remove soil and waste materials and can be delivered by lorry load or in bulk bags.

